Students taste school flavor at book sales

Freshmen taste their first taste of school life as students came to the book sales and other activities. They found the school very interesting but then there were others who breezed through. Lockers were also opened. As for the "411" people got to know. When it came to get the picture taken everyone forced a smile to make the picture look good.

1. The first step is to identify the key components of the system. This includes understanding the hardware, software, and data involved. The next step is to define the goals and objectives of the project. This involves determining what the system is intended to achieve and how it will be evaluated. The third step is to design the system architecture. This includes defining the overall structure of the system, the components, and their interactions. The fourth step is to implement the system. This involves developing the code, configuring the hardware, and testing the system. The final step is to maintain the system. This involves monitoring the system's performance, updating it as needed, and troubleshooting any issues that arise.

Lunch spells more than food during weeks

Campus furnishes places for study

Besides all the fun and activities at Maryvale, there was some serious studying going on. The IMC was a popular place to work. It had a quiet and relaxed atmosphere, most of the time. Classrooms, of course, were other good places to study

At lunchtime and at other hours of the day, students could be seen on benches, on the ground, in groups or alone, cramming for tests in their next classes.

Stands lines provide action during season

During football games more went on than many realized. Not only were there dedicated fans who would sweat through the teams' every move down, but there were those who didn't even know how the game of football was played. They were there to see friends or to find out what was going on after the game. Some people were dressed nicely, even more so than they dressed at school. They were probably going to one of the many dances held in the gym.

There were those who joined the endless line at the refreshment stand during half time. For those who were not hungry or thirsty there was the half time show to enjoy, but whether it was to socialize, watch, or just for something to do, the football games were a fun and popular way to spend Friday nights.

New Wave hits Government for assemblies

M.H.S.

At a recent assembly, the New Wave band performed for the first time. The band, consisting of students from the high school, was led by their teacher, Mr. [Name]. They performed several songs, including "New Wave" and "Government". The assembly was held in the gymnasium and was attended by all students and faculty. The band's performance was well-received and they were praised for their talent and hard work.

The New Wave band's performance was a highlight of the assembly. The students showed great skill and enthusiasm, and their music was enjoyed by everyone in the audience. The band's success is a testament to their dedication and the support of their teacher.

Dance classes include basics and performing

The dance classes showed their skill and originality by being the first to perform at the school assembly.

THE DANCE CLASS, under the direction of Ms. Blanche Berry, the classes performed several styles of dance, choreographed their own dances, and improved on technique.

The classes got to do a lot more performing than in previous years. Besides the Christmas concert, they danced in fall and spring concerts.

The girls performed a routine that ended off with a flourish in the upper right.

Music

Fleetwood Mac, Styx, Heart, Van Halen, Bruce Springsteen, and Bob Seger were just a few musicians to visit the valley this season. The popularity of these was proven by the abundance of their concert T-Shirts and record album sales. Crimes of Passion, Auto American, and One more Song were albums by some of the 80's newly discovered talent, while house hold names such as Neil Stewart and Elton John kept turning up. Some great music was enjoyed this year, whether it was Rock and Roll or Boogie Down Funk. Come backs by John Lee Hooker, AC/DC, Led Zeppelin and Heart were made after losing members of their groups. Making albums like Back in Black even more popular.

Fashion

Most Maryvale styles were passed over from last year including Calvin Kline designer jeans, Ocean Pacific shirts and the popular Nike shoe. This is basically what the average students wore with their Levis, but occasionally you'd see some Cosmo Queen in a purple space suit and a flammable hair style.

Cinema

The 1980-81 season offered only a limited amount of movies, but if you passed your judgement they were worth the four bucks you had to pay to see them. While movies like the Empire Strikes back, Ordinary People and Stir Crazy made us laugh or cry, we were saddened by the deaths of Peter Sellers and Steve McQueen, and enlightened that Richard Pryor didn't lose face with his fans, when his freebase exploded.

Some people in Cleveland demonstrated they would give up anything to see the Who even their lives. Closer to home, the Phoenix Union High District was forced to contemplate the closure of three schools to fit the budget. Faces from the gutter were Berkowitz and Mark David Chapman and Joe Bonano finally went to jail. Las Vegas became a hot spot on the map as two of their major hotels went up in smoke. Cars

Cars for speed, looks, strength or transportation. The student parking lot was packed with Trans Am's, Shiny 4x4's, long and lean lowriders and not so outstanding Monzas and Plymouth States wagons. If you didn't have a rather alternative-faceted riding your bike, walking or bumming a ride from your friend. Ask Editor Gil Leighty how many bodies (various sizes) you can put in a Mustang II. Eye Catching Autos include a Black, late model Z-28, A Yellow 4x4 Ford, A street scrapin Buick lowrider and an Orange Corvette in the street show category. A white little blue Honda, various Toyotas and Datsuns made up a majority of the lot. There was also the big Plymouth fury with flat tires by the portables that sat there so long we thought it was a permanent fixture.

Costs

Today we complain about the high costs of living, but what will happen in 10 years, 5 years, or even the next year? As a comparison chart we list here a few of today's prices so when you glance back you can remember when.

- A 16 Oz. bottle of soda was .45
- A gallon of Regal Gasline was 1.25
- A package of Zingers was .50
- A loaf of bread was .97
- A gallon of Milk was 1.89
- A movie ticket was 3.50
- A big Mac was 1.35

Jobs

Part time jobs were very popular among upperclassmen. Village Inn, McDonalds, Jack in the box, Capins and K-Mart were only a few of the businesses that hired students for after school work. One could usually pick out the over-worked and underpaid students making up time catching some Z's during their classes. Some seniors worked at McDonalds so long they began to develop sesame seed buns.

Volleyball team wins Division

The 1980 Varsity Volleyball Team was able to bring home the Division Championship for the second year in a row.

The team, led by Bev Bostrom, had a record of 7 wins and 1 loss. With only two returning players, they were thrust into a new league with much harder competition, but they improved after each game. They beat out Trevor Browne in a close match of 15-12, 15-5 to reserve the fourth and final seat going into Division.

The Panthers exploded to the peak of their skill at Division first they defeated Arcadia who were number one in League A, 15-3, 15-7. Their next game was against West and they stopped them 15-4, 15-4. In the finals, it was Mar Vista who came back again whom they had previously defeated. The Panthers won 15-12, 15-5. The team's record was 7-1. They were the Division Champions.

Barry Swift rebounds for slam dunks

Barry Swift, a senior forward, has been a key player for the team. He has been instrumental in many of the team's victories, particularly in the rebounding department. His ability to jump high and grab the ball has been a major asset to the team.

Swift has been a consistent performer throughout the season. He has averaged 15 points and 10 rebounds per game. His leadership on the court has been a major factor in the team's success. He has been a role model for the younger players and has helped them to improve their game.

Swift's dedication to the sport has been evident from the start. He has worked hard every day to improve his skills and has been a team player. He has always put the team first and has been a great example for the other players. His hard work and dedication have paid off, and the team is now in a strong position to win the championship.

Former Star Babcock coaches basketball

Eleven years ago Rob Babcock helped propell the Panther basketball team to a 7-6 record and a league championship. In 1981 he returned to coach the team to their best record in the last five years. Aided by nine returning seniors and a host of talented juniors the Panthers moved over traditional nemeses Greenway and Trevor Browne

Spring break rains spoil game action

Spring sports usually wind up with the short end of the stick because yearbook deadlines end about the same time baseball, track, tennis, and girls basketball start.

Add to that bad weather and spring break to make it impossible to even give them the usual coverage. Two baseball games, one track meet, and a tennis match were postponed the last week yearbook could mail in final copy. Luckily, girls' basketball is played indoors, but the other teams had to settle for pictures of practice.

The first of these is the fact that the group is composed of people of various ages and backgrounds. This is a very important factor in the success of the group, as it allows for a wide range of talents and experiences to be brought to the table.

Another important factor is the leadership of the group. A strong leader is essential for the group to function effectively. The leader should be able to inspire and motivate the group, and should be able to make decisions when needed.

The first of these is the fact that the government has been unable to raise the necessary funds to meet its obligations.
 This is due to a combination of factors, including a decline in tax revenue and an increase in government spending.
 The second major problem is the government's failure to implement effective economic reforms. This has led to a stagnating economy and high unemployment rates.
 Finally, the government has been plagued by corruption and mismanagement, which has further eroded public confidence and hindered economic growth.

1. H_2O is a polar molecule. It has a bent shape, with the oxygen atom at the vertex and the hydrogen atoms at the ends of the bonds. The oxygen atom is more electronegative than the hydrogen atoms, so it pulls the shared electrons closer to itself. This creates a partial negative charge on the oxygen atom and a partial positive charge on each hydrogen atom. The overall dipole moment of the molecule is non-zero, making it polar.

Miller, Geiler run 'tight' campus ship

With a minimum of hullabaloo, George Miller and Vae Geiler used their second year as principal and assistant principal respectively to set Maryvale on a long term course.

No drastic reforms were necessary to accomplish this feat and few were forthcoming. Both administrators were easily accessible to students and teachers with problems.

Mr. Miller was particularly effective in his role as curriculum leader but also led the return of peace on the campus after Maryvale and other schools experienced violence on and off campus during the early part of the school year.

Geiler, who retired from the navy reserve after 20 years service, used that experience to run a "tight" ship, especially in the field of attendance. He was particularly helpful to students who had scheduling problems and could be counted on to find money for worthy projects around school.

Administration handles rules, sports, clubs

Assistant principals Martin Ulloa and Jordan Petersen are in charge of the school's administrative functions. They are responsible for the school's discipline, sports, and clubs. They also oversee the school's administrative staff.

Although their primary duty is handling student discipline, they also enjoy their administrative work. Mr. Ulloa, who is married to Mary, and Mr. Petersen, who is married to Mary, both enjoy their administrative work.

Mr. Ulloa is a former basketball player and a former coach. He has been at the school for 10 years. Mr. Petersen is a former basketball player and a former coach. He has been at the school for 10 years.

Enrollment loss problem for MH'S faculty

The school year proved to be a remarkably steady one for the faculty of Maryvale High School as few changes were made in their routine. The veteran teachers were joined, not by new teachers but by transfers from other campuses in the district as money problems caused by declining enrollment to plague the district.

Declining enrollment hit the Art department as it lost a long-time friend, Ceramics teacher Cal Tenny. Richard Shilling taught three ceramics classes as well as his Craft classes. Mrs. Elizabeth Meneke kept her department going as smoothly as ever.

Department adds revolving doors for travelers

Bill Saban, the jovial chairman of the Business department greeted two new teachers as Nestore Bartholomew and Linda Montonaro joined to teach classes in beginning typing and General Business. The English department should have installed revolving doors

Not only did Arline Ranck and Tom Dickerson split their time at Maryvale with other duties, but Kay Larson taught until mid-term only to leave making room for Jim Waugh who taught at Maryvale last year; Mary Luckenbill interrupted her teaching year to bring a son, Paul Christopher into the world; Joyce Benner enjoyed her first full year here after moving from West at semester break last year. Almeda Boatwright was the other new member of the staff

Maryvaleland under thumbs of Shirleys

Once upon a time, there were four Shirleys Anderson (upper left), Colvert (upper right), Feuersanger (lower left) and Sternke (lower right). This, in itself is not so strange but all these Shirleys dwell in the land of Maryvale and worked for King Miller, and assistant kings Geiler, Ulloa and Thoreen.

Anderson and Sternke ruled over the yellow call cards and many students in the land of Maryvale thought they had magical powers. Colvert ruled over the coin of the realm and many thought the kingdom was broke. Feuersanger was the keeper of the royal secrets with which she regaled all the court.

A row of six black and white portrait photographs of young women, likely from a yearbook. The women are arranged horizontally, each in a separate frame. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera. The first woman on the left has dark, curly hair. The second woman has dark hair pulled back. The third woman has dark hair with bangs. The fourth woman has dark hair pulled back. The fifth woman has dark hair with bangs. The sixth woman on the right has dark hair pulled back.

A row of six black and white portrait photographs of young women, likely from a yearbook. The women are arranged horizontally, each with a different hairstyle and expression. The first woman on the left has long, dark hair. The second has short, dark hair. The third has shoulder-length, dark hair. The fourth has short, dark hair. The fifth has short, dark hair. The sixth on the right has short, dark hair.

A row of six black and white portrait photographs of women, likely from a yearbook. The women are arranged horizontally, each with a different hairstyle and expression. The images are somewhat faded and have a vintage quality.

A row of six black and white portrait photographs of young women, likely from a yearbook. The women are arranged horizontally, each in a separate frame. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera. The first woman on the left has dark, wavy hair and is wearing a light-colored top. The second woman has dark hair pulled back and is wearing a light-colored top. The third woman has dark hair pulled back and is wearing a light-colored top. The fourth woman has dark, wavy hair and is wearing a light-colored top. The fifth woman has dark, wavy hair and is wearing a light-colored top. This is the hardest thing I have ever written. Four years ago as I sat in Mr. Stinson's journalism class I couldn't even imagine that I would someday be writing this, the final copy. This will put the finishing touches on the 1981 Pantheon and on some of the best experiences I have ever had. I owe many thanks to many people for their help on the yearbook and just keeping me alive and sane.

Mr. Stinson, I have a confession to make. Ever since December of my sophomore year, I have been able to see through your mean act. I know that you've always wanted me to think that you hated me but I always understood that you really just disliked me a lot.

Tommy Leggin, Thank you. You've been a great help. You get my vote for 'Rookie of the year'. Besides that, you've given Uncle Earl someone else to yell at. (You are the only other person who threw the phone off the desk.)

Randy, Thank you for all the times you've run out to the snack bar for me. (Without you, I probably would have died of starvation.)

And to the rest of the late night deadlines staff, Lori Shern, Steve, and particularly Dennis (for knowing more than I did most of the time). Here are a few non-staffers who I would personally like to thank. Diane Dixon for all the time I picked on you. Like when your senior picture was ruined and you had to give me a new one and also when you had to come in here 900 times just to get one picture taken.

Tara Reed for being a special friend and supporting me in all the tough decisions I had to make.

To you the people of Maryvale, for who you are and what you do.
